Who is RENU?

RENU Contracting Restoration is a multi-generational family-owned business founded in 1959 as a retail and commercial flooring business. Our oldest division has been operating for 65 years. RENU Contracting Restoration has diversified and transformed into a leading and innovative full-service general contracting, restoration, and energy solutions firm. Our fleet of trucks contain generators and equipment that can service high volume and mass scale disaster relief. We provide quality work and superior service to customers across Long Island and throughout Hudson Valley, NY. Our team is committed to exceeding expectations. We take great pride in our ability to build lasting relationships, providing positive experiences that prove our professionals are reliable and exceptional partners.

Emergency Response

No one understands the importance of an immediate response in emergency assistance more than RENU, which is why we not only have a toll free 24/7 response line, but we also offer an app allowing you to have quick access to a professional with a push of a button.
